

From Benedictine University at Springfield

Attention: Managing, News and Education Editors

Date: Monday, February 13, 2012

Contact: Scott McCullar (217) 525-1420, ext. 248

Prospective students invited to learn more about Benedictine University at Springfield

Springfield, Illinois - Prospective new students and their families can learn more about Benedictine University at Springfield during Preferred Visit Day on Monday, February 20.

Preferred Visit Day offers high school students the opportunity to meet with the Admissions staff in a small group to discuss Benedictine University's renowned academic programs, admission requirements, application process, available scholarships and financial aid. Campus tours are also available.

Preferred Visit Day sessions begin at 10:00 a.m., 2:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. in Angela Hall. An RSVP is required at <http://www1.ben.edu/springfield/rsvp/index.html>.

Benedictine University at Springfield offers traditional undergraduate programs in Biology, Business and Economics, Communication Arts, Criminal Justice, Elementary Education, Finance, Health Science, History, Marketing, Management and Organizational Behavior, Psychology, Sociology, Theology, and Writing and Publishing.

For more information, contact Benedictine University at Springfield at <http://springfield.ben.edu> or (217) 525-1420.

###

Benedictine University at Springfield is an independent Roman Catholic institution located in the Illinois state capital. Founded in 1887, Benedictine provides 17 undergraduate majors, five graduate and one doctorate program in Springfield, in addition to a wide range of athletic opportunities for students through membership in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA).